MEMORANDUM FOR

Commanders, All Units Reporting Directly to This Headquarters Directors and Chiefs, Primary and Special Staff Offices, HQ USACC

SUBJECT: Policy Memorandum 5-3 - Senior ROTC Program Viability Review and Missioning Standards

1. Reference:

a. Department of Defense Instruction 1215.08, Senior Reserve Officers' Training Corps Programs (change 1), 7 March 2018.

b. Army Regulation 145-1, (Senior Reserve Officers' Training Corps Program: Organization, Administration, and Training).

c. Memorandum, OASA (M&RA), SAMR, subject: Senior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (SROTC) Program Review, 29 January 2014.

d. Memorandum, Commanding General USACC, ATCC-SI, subject: Guidance for Senior ROTC Program Viability Review and Missioning Standards, 11 June 2018.

2. This memorandum supersedes the memorandum signed by the Commanding General, USACC, dated 11 June 2018.

3. This Command's policy for assessing, missioning, and resourcing SROTC programs is two-fold. First, SROTC programs will be missioned to the Secretary of the Army's approved viability standards (reference 1c). Second, resources will be prioritized to meet the DA directed volume commission mission. I will accept judicious risk in managing limited resources to achieve the DA directed volume commission mission and the potential effect on a program's assessment.

4. The Command's priority for FY22-24 is the DA directed volume commission mission, directly supporting the Army's Readiness and Modernization goals.

SUBJECT: Policy Memorandum 5-3 - Senior ROTC Program Viability Review and Missioning Standards

5. Implementation Guidance.

a. The Secretary of the Army's annual assessment requirement and standards remain in effect.

b. Brigade Commanders will mission their SROTC programs in accordance with the SecArmy's viability standards.

c. Brigade Commanders must plan and resource their programs in accordance with USACC approved Program Staffing Standards, Manpower Rules, DA and TRADOC manpower regulations, guidance, and policies.

d. The SROTC program viability standard is one consideration in meeting the DA directed volume mission. Brigade Commanders are authorized to weigh other planning considerations, such as historical production and potential, market factors, USACC manpower allocation rules, HRC and USACC assignment policies, and budget factors related to marketing, scholarships, and incentives to best achieve their brigade contract and volume commission missions.

6. Point of contact is Jerry P. Schulz, Deputy Director G5, US Army Cadet Command (502) 624-4918.
