

United States Army Cadet Command

MMI Housing and Tricare

- The city of Marion, AL is located in Perry County, AL. The city's website is www.cityofmarion.al.org, and the Marion Military Institute website is www.marionmilitary.edu.
- The city of Marion has limited resources such as housing, medical care, grocery stores, etc. available. The majority of ROTC cadre live in and commute from larger cities such as Selma, Prattville, Montgomery, Clanton, Tuscaloosa, and Birmingham.
 - Travel times and distances from other locations:
 - Selma: 35 minutes / 26 miles southeast of Marion
 - Clanton: 59 minutes / 49 miles northeast of Marion
 - Tuscaloosa: 62 minutes / 55 miles north of Marion
 - Prattville: 76 minutes / 62 miles southeast of Marion
 - Birmingham: 83 minutes / 77 miles northeast of Marion
 - Montgomery: 86 minutes / 77 miles southeast of Marion
- The military base located nearest to Marion Military Institute (MMI) is Maxwell Air Force Base, an Air Force training base in Montgomery, AL. For that reason, many cadre change their TRICARE coverage to TRICARE Prime Remote upon PCSing to MMI. The city of Marion does not have a hospital, but many surrounding cities have robust civilian medical treatment facilities. Marion does have a health clinic (Vaughan Regional Medical Center Marion Clinic) where cadre can complete some MEDPROS requirements and be seen for general family medicine concerns. Managing your TRICARE coverage can be completed through <https://tricare.mil>.

